Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

First Reading – Isaiah 6:1-8

Psalms 138:1-5, 7-8

Second Reading – 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Gospel – Luke 5:1-11

Simon Peter, the fisherman, is the first to be called personally by Jesus in Luke’s Gospel.

His calling resembles Isaiah’s commissioning in the First Reading: confronted with the holiness of the Lord, both Peter and Isaiah are overwhelmed by a sense of their own sinfulness and inadequacy. Yet each experiences the Lord’s forgiveness and is sent to preach the good news of His mercy to the world.

No one is “fit to be called an apostle,” Paul recognizes in today’s Epistle. But by “the grace of God,” even a persecutor of the Church—as Paul once was—can be lifted up for the Lord’s service.

In the Old Testament, humanity was unfit for the divine—no man could stand in God’s presence and live (see Exodus 33:20). But in Jesus, we’re made able to speak with Him face-to-face, to taste His Word on our tongue.

Today’s scene from Isaiah is recalled in every Mass. Before reading the Gospel, the priest silently asks God to cleanse his lips that he might worthily proclaim His Word.

God’s Word comes to us as it came to Peter, Paul, Isaiah, and today’s Psalmist—as a personal call to leave everything and follow Him, to surrender our weaknesses in order to be filled with His strength.

Simon put out into deep waters even though, as a professional fisherman, he knew it would be foolhardy to expect to catch anything. In humbling himself before the Lord’s command, he was exalted—his nets filled to overflowing; later, as Paul tells us, he will become the first to see the risen Lord. Jesus has made us worthy to receive Him in the company of angels in God’s holy Temple. On our knees like Peter, with the humility of David in today’s Psalm, we thank Him with all our hearts and join in the unending hymn that Isaiah heard around God’s altar: “Holy, holy, holy . . .” (see also Revelation 4:8).

And the Joy of Family Life Daily
Reflections

This Is the Gospel of Life

Have you thought about the talents that God has given you? Have you thought of how you can put them at the service of others? Do not bury your talents! Set your stakes on great ideals, the ideals that enlarge the heart, the ideals of service that make your talents fruitful.

Life is not given to us to be jealously guarded for ourselves, but is given to us so that we may give it in turn. Dear young people, have a deep spirit! Do not be afraid to dream of great things!

- Message, February 19, 2014

Reflection: How do you react to suffering? How do other members of your family react? By his death on the cross Christ transformed suffering, giving it greater meaning and purpose. Just as his suffering helped save the world, our suffering can unite us to him and be offered up for others. Take time to discuss the meaning of suffering with your family.

MARRIAGE, DIVORCE, NULLITY

Father Philip Creurer, Archdiocesan Judicial Vicar, will be giving a presentation on “Marriage, divorce and nullity”. How the Church deals with these issues in our current cultural context, Wednesday, February 16, 7:00 PM, followed by Q&A, at St Theresa Parish in Millwoods, MacNeil Hall. Register for in person attendance at edmontoncwl.cfl@gmail.com or attend online, Google Meet <https://meet.google.com/rhg-ngnd-pwd> or YouTube <https://youtu.be/5mmr-kGL5p4> Look for our posters on parish, Diocesan CWL, Knights of Columbus or Legion of Mary websites.

Together We Serve: Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who contributed this weekend to the TWS fundraising appeal, which supports local, national, and international Catholic Charities. The readings this Sunday are about sharing the good news about our loving and holy God. The dollars raised by Together We Serve support those sent out into the world to share the Gospel: our priests, deacons, bishops, Catholic teachers, chaplains, pastoral workers and missionaries. Together We Serve charities include: St. Joseph Seminary, St. Joseph’s College Chaplaincy (U of A), Newman Theological College, and foreign missions. Together, let our gifts bring many blessings to others. Together we can make a difference as Together We Serve. Our next collection is March 6, but donations can be made any time.
